

RIDGEWAY PRIMARY SCHOOL

Equal Opportunities & Racial Equality Policy

Background and Introduction

The school offers access to all pupils. Our philosophy is one of total inclusion. We accommodate all pupils together irrespective of learning, physical and behavioural difficulties.

The school is in what is referred to as an area of low socio and economic status with a diverse range of socio-economic backgrounds and mix of housing types – both private and rented.

The school itself is populated predominately by white/British families and there is little “first hand” experience of natural diversity. We therefore have a commitment to promoting ‘Community Cohesion’ (see policy statement for Community Cohesion) and fundamental British Values see policy statement for British Values).

The school has a strong commitment to its own identity and projects a warm caring atmosphere to not only its pupils and to all members of the school community.
